“FIREPLACES
now STAND as a
FUNCTIONAL and
DESIGN-LED ADDITION
to LIVING AREAS and
as such, SHOULD BE
of a WIDER VISION.”

organic, fluid styles, this impressive range, available from Design Central, is sure to make a statement. And, if you belong to the rare breed who forgo nightly Netflix for evenings spent in deep discussion, a sculptural, suspended fireplace in the centre of a room will not only be an artful addition to your living space, but will inspire a connective, campfire-esque focus in your home, which, in our tech-centric world, can only be a good thing.
